Mark 11:1-11

Triumphal Entry

Jesus and his friends were going to Jerusalem. It was the time of the biggest holiday of the year. Jesus told his friends, "Go into the next village. You will find a donkey there. Tell the owner I need it."

His friends brought the donkey back to Jesus. Jesus climbed on its back and rode it into the city with his friends behind him.

The city was full of people. So many people! When the people saw Jesus they got VERY excited. "There's Jesus!" someone shouted. "Riding on a donkey!"

"He's God's promised savior!" shouted another.

The crowds cheered. They waved palm branches. They laid their palm branches and coats on the road to make a carpet for Jesus to ride on. "Hosanna!" they shouted. "Hosanna to our ruler!"

 REMEMBER THIS

HOSANNA

A shout of joy that means, "Our God saves!"
